MEDICINAL.

The recent marriage of a couple of cripples, each having only half the proper complement of arms and legs, was noted by the press as a "curious curiosity." But who notes the marriages which occur daily in which both parties are cripples in health.

Crippled health means, as a rule, insufficient nutrition, and lack of nutritive points to disease of the stomach and digestive tract. Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect nourishment of the body, and so builds it up in sound health and strength.

"I had been a great sufferer from indigestion for the last nine years," writes Mrs. Margaret Stingle, of Owens Mills, Baltimore Co., Md. "I was such a wreck and seemed death was near, but today can say I feel like another woman. I have received much and lasting good from Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription.' I have taken twenty-five bottles in all, and followed the advice of Dr. R. V. Pierce, and am happy to say that life is worth living now. A thousand thanks for your treatment."

Do not be cajoled into trading a substance for a shadow. Any substitute offered as "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery" is a shadow of that medicine. There are cures behind every claim made for the "Discovery."

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1208 large pages, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of twenty-one one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

HITS BACK AT HANNA.

"Mr. Hanna rushing to the rescue of organized labor is, when you come to think of it, somewhat an astonishing spectacle," said D. M. Parry, of Indianapolis, when asked for his opinion as to the attack made upon his labor position by Senator Hanna at the banquet of the Amalgamated Steel Workers, at Columbus, Tuesday night.

"If everyone has enjoyed the speech of the Senator as much as I have," continued Mr. Parry, "it certainly cannot be claimed that he has not done his share in contributing to the era of general good feeling. But then a good deal can be forgiven a man who is in the midst of a trying campaign, especially when he has recently been defeated by a candidate like Tom Johnson.

The genesis of Mr. Hanna from an energetic business man with a labor record not particularly distinguished for leniency, into a political leader and finally a United States Senator, who is the leading spirit, if not the founder of the Civic Federation, is a remarkable instance of what the political bee will make a man do when it gets to buzzing in his bonnet. Who knows where the metamorphosis of Mr. Hanna will end? Is it possible that he has become a convert to all the leading tenets of trades unionism?

It appears that he actually joined the Amalgamated Union, or whatever it is called, and his speech would certainly pass as an excellent one to mark an initiation in the order.

"Of course, I am aware that all this is not argument, but then there was very little argument in Mr. Hanna's speech. He takes up a paper, which has met the endorsement of 98 per cent. of the manufacturers of the country, and makes what I think the country will hold as a poor attempt to answer it. He reads a section from this paper, then denies it is true, and turns around, after sneering at the writer, and says, in the manner of the ordinary stump speaker, 'Boys, isn't that so?' Of course, 'the boys' sent up an uproarious shout of approval. Then he patted this man on the back and then that one, called Mr. Shaffer 'brother,' and otherwise conducted himself as the presiding genius of a veritable low festival. After the manner of a pettifogging lawyer, he picked out a couple of paragraphs of my report, held them up to ridicule, and then passed on to his own ideas as to joint agreement and the legal responsibilities of labor unions, evading all the main points brought out in my address. It there is anything more in Mr. Hanna's speech I fail to find it.

"What has Mr. Hanna to say about fixing the wages by artificial methods? There is the root of the whole matter. If it is right that one class of workmen should have their wages fixed arbitrarily, then it is only just that the wages of all classes should be fixed in the same manner. I have heard it said that had it not been for Mr. Hanna and his civic federation the anthracite coal strike would have been settled without the crushing losses that fell upon the consumers of the country; but be this as it may, does Mr. Hanna agree that it was perfectly proper for the miners' union to demand a scale of wages out of proportion to the wages paid similar labor in other industries, and, failing to get it, to go on strikes, paralyzing orderly government in the mining districts and causing a shortage of the fuel supply that meant a loss of millions to industry and to householders throughout the country?

"I am surprised to see that Mr. Hanna so flatly denies the proposition that organized labor is founded on the principle of force, when every day furnishes demonstrations in proof of my charge. The only reason why the anthracite miners received a wage scale confessedly out of proportion to what similar labor gets elsewhere is because they were able to compel its granting by force. They proved their power by going on strikes and preventing other men from taking their places, despite the presence of the entire National Guard of Pennsylvania. The country was at their mercy, and finally, as a measure of expediency, it became necessary for the government to negotiate with them that peace might be purchased. Is this the kind of business Mr. Hanna now encourages?

"Mr. Hanna praises the joint agreements entered into between the bituminous miners and the operators. He says that peace has been maintained by virtue of these agreements for five years in the bituminous industry. We had an instance of what the cost of this peace is by the joint agreement made this spring at Indianapolis. Under the threat of a strike the operators yielded to a demand for an increased scale that gave the miners 25 cents a ton additional over what they had been receiving. One joint agreement is but the precursor of another, and the only limitation upon the increase in wages under this mutual interest scheme is the capacity of the pocket-books of the American consumers.

MRS. IDA McDONALD,

Supreme Deputy of the Maccabees of the World.

MRS. McDONALD, No. 477 Beaubien Street, Detroit, Mich., is a prominent woman who was greatly benefited by the great woman's medicine, Wine of Cardui. Mrs. McDonald is the supreme deputy of the Maccabees of the World, and one of the most widely known women in the United States. Thousands of women gather to hear her lecture everywhere she goes. The great work she has done for the Maccabees is appreciated by every member of the order. She was so absorbed in her work that she neglected to give her health proper care—failed to take warning that the symptoms of approaching kidney trouble gave her, the hollow complexion and torpid liver. But Wine of Cardui cured her the same as it has cured thousands of others and Mrs. McDonald has written this letter in order that other suffering women may secure from Wine of Cardui the same relief she got from it.

that I must do something to regain my health. A friend advocated my Wine of Cardui treatment so strongly that I decided to try it, although I had little faith in patent medicines. I am now very thankful that I did so, for within ten days blessed relief came to me, and in less than three months I was cured, and have enjoyed fine health ever since. I know there is nothing better for a sick woman who wishes to enjoy perfect health and am very pleased to give my hearty endorsement.

No suffering woman can afford to ignore such a letter as Mrs. McDonald writes. Her plans and advice have proved valuable in building up one of the greatest women's organizations in the United States and she takes time to give advice which she knows will help you.

Do not delay in securing this medicine. There is nothing to gain and everything to lose by delay. The choice is before you. Will or will you not secure relief now by taking Wine of Cardui? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui as well as 25c packages of Theodor's Black-Draught.

"For four years I suffered with torpid liver until my skin looked yellow and dull. I then found my kidneys were affected and had severe pains across my back, and I felt

ALEXANDRIA STEAM BAKERY.

Wait until the wageworkers of the country get on to this little game of joint agreements, and what a beautiful solution of all our troubles will be reached!

"Mr. Hanna corralled the manufacturers of the country in the first McKinley campaign because of the fear of Bryanism. He led them into the McKinley camp because of this fear, but if he thinks he can ringrope the manufacturers of the country on the labor issue and lead them into the camp of Gompers and his aggregation, I think he overestimates his strength and influence very much."

The best physic: Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Easy to take; pleasant in effect. For sale by Richard Gibson.

Good for Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of Cough, Croup and La Grippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the inflammation. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure living and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues. E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Ordinary household accidents have no terrors when there's a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the medicine chest. Heals burns, cuts, bruises, sprains. Instant relief.

Confederate Bazaar at Richmond.

April 15 to May 1.

All over the South we have placed monuments to our private soldiers and sailors and their great commanders.

It now remains for the Capital of the Confederacy to crown the whole by raising one to our first, our last, our only President, the head of our civil government—a government as wonderful as it was brief.

We owe this duty to ourselves and to our children, that they may realize that a sublime record was made for them in history. The whole South unites in this loving tribute to the men who died to uphold that government, and to those who, with no less devotion, steered the ship of State. What have you done to help us? What will you do to complete the work? We ask both your influence and your sympathy, that we may build a monument worthy of our people and their dead.

This movement is endorsed by the United Confederate Veterans and the Daughters of the Confederacy.

MRS. N. V. RANDOLPH, MRS. JOSEPH BRYAN, MRS. STEPHEN PUTNEY, Committee.

All parcels of not over twenty-five pounds, addressed to Mrs. Stephen Putney, President Confederate Bazaar, Richmond, Va., will be delivered free by the express companies.
